THE 2022 G20 BALI SUMMIT IN FOCUS: INDONESIA ON THE GLOBAL STAGE
January 24 - 25, 2023

1. Background

The 17th G20 Summit will be attended by several Heads of State and Government in November 2022 in Bali with Indonesia as the President this year. The G20 Bali Summit saw Indonesia as a rising regional power with aspirations of global influence coupled with substantive in directing international affairs as our world gradually emerges from the COVID-19 pandemic. As the G20 2022 motto “Recover Together, Recover Stronger” suggests, how Indonesia stays on the right track with the main pillars of the G20 after coming out of the pandemic

The conference seeks organized panels individual papers, proposals, and research outlining the three main pillars of interest about Indonesia and the world at the 2022 G20 Summit: Global Health Architecture, Sustainable Energy Transition, and Digital Transformation. We look forward to proposals/abstracts from scholars spanning the humanities, health sciences, social sciences, environmental sciences, and digital technology fields to enhance and diversify conference perspectives and dialogues.
